

1st Grade Weekly News

Dear Parents,

Below are some questions that your child will be able to discuss based on this and next week's lessons:

- What do we not end a one syllable word with? (C)
 - What do we use instead? (K or a CK) What are some words that show us this? (milk, brick, pack)
- Who are we talking to when we pray? (God – The one true God!) What do we learn from the story of Elijah? (God is the one true God and He answers our prayers)
- What is an easy way to remember your doubles in math? (Use our skip counting songs!)

Joyfully in Christ,

Elizabeth Robison

Introduction to the Lord's Prayer

Hallowed be Thy Name.

What does this mean?

God's name is certainly holy in itself, but we pray in this petition that it may be kept holy among us also.

Religion- Elijah and the Prophets of Baal; Elijah goes to Heaven; Naaman and Elisha; The Three Men and the Fiery Furnace; The Lord Leaves the Temple Hymn: For All the Saints (LSB 677)

Reading – The Milk Truck Rule: reminds us that we never use a C at the end of a one syllable word, we only use a K or a CK. We only use a CK RIGHT AFTER a short vowel.

Handwriting – reviewed during copy work and literature

English – Practice in classifying and writing sentences; editing sentences

Literature – Make Way for Ducklings – Wk 2

Math – Lesson 12: Adding Doubles

Science – 39– Plants – The First Stage of Germination Lab: Roots and Water Part 1

Geography – Drawing continents – All continents drawn precisely

History – The First Thanksgiving Book: The Mayflower by Ann McGovern

Continue to the back...

Homework:

Memory: The First Petition of the Lord's Prayer (See Above!)

Phonics Story: Chuck the Chick (It needs to return daily!)

Literature: Make Way for Ducklings – (Read to "...blowing his whistle.") (It should be returned daily!)
