

LITERATUS LINGUA

MRS. WEIDER

Grammar/ Literature

This week scholars will further practice prepositional phrases and classifying sentences. We have been doing daily Preposition quizzes to solidify our knowledge of the prepositions. The scholars have reported increased memorization of the list of prepositions as we continue to write them instead of simply reciting them.

In literature, Julius Caesar will meet his end during our study of Act 2. Each scholar is responsible for completing a reading guide for Act 1-5. This is what they will use to take notes on the play. It can also be used for the quiz at the end of each Act.
