Week 26: Lent 1 (Invocabit)

Even though we had only three days, we were quite busy. Thank you to my chaperones on the field trip to Taste of Texas. We had such an amazing time and the scholars really enjoyed learning about our great state!!!

I wanted to remind you that even though I am not emailing you about the homework schedule, you may find it on FACTS. Also, your scholar should be writing it in their agenda. If you don't see my signature, then they did not bring it to me to verify that they wrote in it. I do this in the morning as part of their copy work. For those who show up right when the bell rings, I give them the opportunity to complete their agenda after Matins.

Today I gave the scholars their recitation for Oratio to memorize. We are reciting "Letter from the Alamo" by William B. Travis. This will be said to me on March 20th as a quiz grade in History. We will also say it in front of the school during Oratio Finals.

We are getting to the end of science fair projects. The next due date is February 27th. The instructions for the photos, graph, and tri-fold board are in their orange folder. If you are missing the instruction page, please do not hesitate to email me and I will send it to you.

The Lost and Found is overflowing. Please check to see if your child has any missing items. Please label your child's items.

Next year's school calendar is available on the school's newsletter.

You may now register for summer camp (PS-4th grade). Please refer to school's newsletter for details.

Sacrament of Holy Baptism – The Fourth Part

What does such baptizing with water indicate?

It indicates that the Old Adam in us should by daily contrition and repentance be drowned and die with all sins and evil desires, and that a new man should daily emerge and arise to live before God in righteousness and purity forever.

Where is this written?

St. Paul writes in Romans chapter six: We were therefore buried with Him through baptism into death in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, we too may live a new life.

Bible Verse: "Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come." 2 Corinthians 5:17
