Week 22-Epiphany 3

January 23, 2026

OUR SAVIOR
LUTHERAN SCHOOL

Hello parents,

We have had a great week! I know that next week there might be some interesting winter weather. Please keep an eye out for an email from our administration involving any decisions that are made. As always, please keep safe and warm!

Thank you so much for checking out uniforms this week. Continue keeping an eye on proper shoes, skirt lengths, proper jackets, and belts with belt loops.

We had so much fun with our Olympic games today! We did not get to all the activities we wanted to so we might revisit the games at some point. Thank you so very much to everyone for participating and providing treats today! You guys are the best, and most supportive!
