Weekly News

Welcome back from Spring Break! We hope everyone had an exciting and restful holiday.

This week, we continued working with adjectives in Latin. We are almost finished with our reading of Dangerous Journey in literature. The final test is scheduled on April 1. We have been working on multiplying multi-digit numbers in math. In religion, we read more about Jesus' ministry.

The scholars in grades 3rd-8th will participate in the Universal Latin Exam on Monday, March 23. A list of vocabulary words was both sent home and emailed to you before Spring Break and again this week. This is NOT for a grade.

The scholars went to the library this week. Our next library day will be April 1. Please help your child to remember to bring their library book by that date to avoid any late fees and fines.

Please note that scholars should not be bringing trading cards to school.

Reminder: Scholars are to be dressed in the proper school uniform. Proper shoes are to be worn on chapel days. Belts should be worn with pants with loops. Skirts should be the proper length. When scholars use their free dress pass, they must be dressed in school-appropriate attire. No short shorts (shorts must be seen below shirts), leggings, or spaghetti straps. Violations are being sent out. Please refer to the handbook if you have any questions.

Chapel is every Wednesday at 8:15am. Scholars are invited to participate in weekly offerings. Families are also invited to join us every Sunday for worship at 9:30am.

Confession

Which are these?

Consider your place in life according to the Ten Commandments:

Are you a father, mother, son, daughter, husband, wife, or worker? Have you been disobedient, unfaithful, or lazy? Have you been hot-tempered, rude, or quarrelsome? Have you hurt someone by your words or deeds? Have you stolen, been negligent, wasted anything, or done any harm?
