Weekly News

Monday was the solar eclipse. We hope that the parents and grandparents who joined us had as much fun as we did. The clouds finally parted long enough for the scholars to view the eclipse. They were very excited when they saw it.

Remember there is a math quiz every Friday.

PLEASE NOTE: There is a no phone policy at OSL. However, some watches have phone capabilities. Scholars are not to be sending or receiving texts or phone calls during school hours. If your child is using their watch as a phone, it may be confiscated and given to the office for you to retrieve. A fine may be imposed. If your child or you need to get in touch with each other, it must be done through proper channels either by the office phone or the classroom phone.

Please remember scholars are not to bring toys to school.

Re-enrollment for next year is in full swing. I hope every scholar will re-enroll. I would love to see everyone's smiling face across the hall next year.

OSL will be offering summer camp for scholars to age 11. Registration is now open to our scholars.

GOOD NEWS!! OSL has reached its goal for the Eagle Fund. Thank you to all who contributed to make this happen. Let's achieve an ALL-IN for our Eagle Fund to finish the year strong. If our class accomplishes the goal of every family giving from our classroom, our class will earn a special dress-up day of our choosing. If our entire school accomplishes this goal, the OSL Administration and Prefects will plan an all-school celebration! Thank you again to those who have already donated.

Confession

What do you believe according to these words?

I believe that when the called ministers of Christ deal with us by His divine command, in particular when they exclude openly unrepentant sinners from the Christian congregation and absolve those who repent of their sins and want to do better, this is just as valid and certain, even in heaven, as if Christ our dear Lord dealt with us Himself.

Bible Verse

The widow who is really in need and left all alone puts her hope in God and continues night and day to pray and to ask God for help.
