
LITERATUS LINGUA

MRS. WEIDER

Grammar/ Literature

This week scholars will be wrapping up our work with conjunctions, compound sentences, and complex sentences. There will be a Chapter 7 Check Up sent home as homework. There will also be an assessment on Friday, January 30.

We are moving onwards with The Hobbit. We will continue to annotate in our book. This process can feel laborious, but studies consistently show that there is a strong connection between handwriting and memory. Furthermore, the best way to connect with the story is to interact with it often. The notes that we take during the reading will help scholars to appreciate the story at a deeper level.

Need Extra Help?

As we move ahead into the second semester of the school year, I want to extend the opportunity for extra help sessions for English Grammar and writing. This time will be for those students who are struggling with a specific assignment or concept.

Please feel free to send your student to the library on the following days for extra assistance if needed:

Tuesday and Thursday- 7:05 to 7:25
