Many thanks for those that attended the Thanksgiving Dinner, we hope you were as "blessed" as we were. Thanks for the special turkey visitors Friday morning also, getting to see a turkey up close and personal is a treat.

In honor of P week, we used the air popper and talked about what happens to make a kernel pop. Then we taste tested a variety of flavors and graphed what the class liked the best.

For morning snack we recreated the Charlie Brown Thanksgiving with pretzels, toast and jelly beans.
