

News from Kindergarten

Trinity 17

Oct. 10, 2025

Dear Parents,

Parent teacher conferences are Wednesday, Oct. 14, and Thursday, Oct. 15. Please sign up for a time slot. Report cards will be handed out at the conference. I look forward to seeing everyone. School will be dismissed early on Wed. at 2:15. There is no school on Thursday..

Please consider donating to the annual fund. Any amount is appreciated and it is for a good cause.

Tuesday the scholars will hear from Smart Families.

Everyone should bring a hat on Friday. We will have hat day for the letter h.

This week:

Religion: Israel enters the promised land. God gave Israel the victory over the other countries without fighting and small armies. God is stronger than any earthly army. He helps His people.

Math: triangles, counting 0-9

Language Arts: Ll .We listened for words that start with /l/. We continue to blend words and listen for beginning, middle, and end sounds in CVC words. We continue to practice counting words in sentences, sounds in words, and syllables.

Literature: The Secret of the Scrolls, When the Leaf Blew In, Owl Moon

History: Christopher Columbus sailed from Spain in 1492 with 3 ships.

Geography: We finished with our Asia books.

.Next Week:

Religion: Gideon, Samson, and Ruth

Memory: week 10 (I will grade memory on October 23. We are working on the 2nd article of the Apostles Creed for 2 weeks.)

Math: counting tens and units, greater and less

Language Arts: Hh

Science: Dirt is decomposed material.

Geography: Introduction to Europe

In His Service,

Debbie Armstrong

