~ Third Form Latin 8 ~

What we're learning...

~ In all four conjugations, the perfect passive system is formed in the same way

~ The perfect passive tenses are compound verbs made up of the 4th principal part and a form of "sum"

~ When writing a perfect passive verb, the participle (4th principal part) must have the correct gender and number to match the subject, and it will always be written in the nominative case

~ The "sum" form must agree with the subject in person and number
