Week 14 -Trinity 21

WEEKLY EAGLE REPORT

I hope you all had a wonderful week!

Today, the scholars are bringing home their "Ant and the Chrysalis" packet that we've been working on in class. They can now begin their rough drafts. The last page of the packet includes the final draft instructions, which also apply to the rough draft.

Their rough drafts should include the three figures of description listed in the packet. An outline is provided to help guide them in retelling the fable. Scholars are encouraged to rewrite the fable in their own words and may even change the characters, as long as the moral stays the same. I've reminded them to be creative and have fun with it!

I'll be assisting students with their rough drafts during English class; however, with 24 scholars, I won't be able to meet individually with everyone in one day. Most of the writing will need to be completed at home. The rough draft is due Friday, November 14th. I'll review them all and return them after Thanksgiving Break, so they can begin their final drafts.

Thank you for your support :)

MEMORY WORK 11/14

The Lord's Prayer – Introduction
Our Father who art in heaven.

What does this mean?

With these words God tenderly invites us to believe that He is our true Father and that we are His true children, so that with all boldness and confidence we may ask Him as dear children ask their dear father.

What is Psalm 103:13?

"As a father shows compassion to his children, so the LORD shows compassion to those who fear him." Psalm 103:13
