Three Stories, One Thread – By: Matt Shively

Joni Eareckson Tada. One day her life was ordinary. The next, a broken neck put her in a wheelchair. She chose what to do with it — founding "Joni and Friends" and taking that ministry worldwide.

Nick Vujicic. Born in Melbourne, Australia in 1982 without arms or legs. He started life without limbs. At nineteen he moved to Texas, and has shared his testimony in over fifty countries. His words: "When you don't get a miracle, you can still be a miracle for someone else".

Joni Eareckson Tada put it this way: "The weaker I am, the harder I must lean on God's grace; the harder I lean on Him, the stronger I discover Him to be".

Fanny Crosby, blind from six weeks. She lived 94 years and wrote more than 8,000 hymns, including "Blessed Assurance" and "To God Be the Glory." Asked about her blindness, she said she'd rather have her sight in heaven than on earth.

Three stories, one thread: God used their disability. It didn't disqualify them — it became the very place He met them and put them to work. Joni in her chair, Nick without limbs, Fanny without sight — none sidelined, all sent.

2 Corinthians 12:9 "My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness". That's Nick's whole story in one verse. Joni's chair, Fanny's darkness — same verse. God's power shows up where ours runs out.

These three didn't overcome their limitations by pretending they weren't there. They brought them to God, and He turned them into the very thing that pointed people to Jesus.

So, don't hide yours either. Bring it!
