Charles Dailey (1930 - 2025)

Charles graduated from San Jose Bible College in 1951. In 1955, he joined The Minnehaha Church of Christ in Vancouver, Washington, where he served as minister for 35 years and touched countless lives. He was an early adopter of computers, buying his first in 1979.

In 1994, Charles and Lois traveled to Harare, where he taught at Zimbabwe Christian College for a quarter.

He obtained a Master's degree from Liberty University and, in 2004, was awarded an honorary doctorate from Northwest College of the Bible where he had taught for nearly 50 years.

He wrote a history of the pioneer Restoration Churches in the Northwest, and he published an autobiography online.

At the age of 80, he was blessed to meet relatives from his birth mother's family and see her photograph for the first time.
