LAST SUNDAY FROM SOUTH SUDAN ON FACEBOOK

Malek Church of Christ is overjoyed on our yesterday's Sunday services where three Aweil Bible College students and 22 others were baptized into Christ in the river immediately after Pastor John Kuac organized baptism sermons.

The Lord's name is glorified and praised! Amen.

From Charles: The gospel outreach in South Sudan is always good candidate for our prayer lists. South Sudan is among the world's poorest nations, but churches there are growing, as is Christian education and a Christian hospital. One church having 25 baptized into Christ on one Sunday is remarkable.

It is a blessing of our age to get news so promptly. In an earlier day, this news would have taken months to reach us. Now, some among the poorest have smart phones and can send pictures to the internet right from the scene.

MAKING OF THIS BULLETIN

Information is gathered beginning at the sermon time for the next week. Dave Kubow or someone in the Sound Booth sends the attendance to Charles. Stormie sends the offering amount. The church directory is checked for birthdays and anniversaries. Janell Judd has tracked these down. Facebook and Youtube are checked for the number of viewers from the previous week. The current sermon plan maintained by Mike is consulted for who is speaking and their subject. The Elders Meeting Agenda is consulted for the green calendar events.

There is much more. While the church bulletin is about people, stories are not released until a person or their family make the news public.
