"The Grace of God"

Sermon Notes

Grace is an interesting thing. It is one of those words like AGAPE' (Love), of the Bible that is, only truly explained and understood in God and Jesus. Without it being associated with God, we cannot have the true meaning of the word. God in His very character explains GRACE.

I. Grace _____.

- "G _____ W _____, "K _____",
- "Friendship", _____ Unmerited F _____",
- "The Free _____ of God".
 - In the Greek, the noun (χάρις). Transliterated: Charis. Pronounced: khar'-ece.
- Thus, a "Gift of _____" or a "Free gift".

II. Grace is best understood in light of _____ we are before God almighty.

- Ephesians 2:1-10 - What is our true nature?
- Ephesians 2:3 – The truth of our very nature.
- Here tends to be the problem. We want to think that we are not so bad off.

III. Grace is Jesus, "The Gift of God", expressed in His S _____ on the cross for my sin, so that I might live In Him.

- Romans 5:1-21 – God's Grace related to us, in detail.
- Titus 2:11-14 – The Apostle Paul summarizes.

Final Thought: Let us transform the truths we have heard today from God's Holy word and prepare to understand more about our Great God being the righteous judge of the universe in the near future. We must not take this free gift for granted and must live our lives in Holy reverence of our Almighty God.

Prayer: Dear LORD, help us as we endeavor to do just this!
