Answering the Call: As We Go Missions

When Jesus commanded us to "Go into all the world and preach the gospel," He invited every believer into a global story of redemption.

As We Go Missions, a ministry led by Bruce Thacker, actively lives out this call by empowering indigenous churches worldwide.

Because local leaders are best equipped to serve their own communities, this ministry steps alongside them through vital encouragement, education, and financial support.

The impact of this ministry stretches across borders. From supporting the Rushangarumwe Medical Clinic in Zimbabwe and Kenya to building homes for the under-housed in Mexico with Amor Ministries, As We Go Missions bridges the gap between U.S. congregations and global needs.

They also organize transformative short-term mission trips, allowing local believers to experience global kingdom work firsthand.
