“A Challenge to Fathers”

Fathers and grandfathers: your calling is one of the highest and heaviest on earth. You are not just raising children; you are shaping the next generation of disciples.

The world defines a man by his strength and success, but God’s Word calls you to something deeper: a quiet, courageous integrity that leads your household in truth. Do not simply model hard work—model deep, abiding faith. Let your family see you read the Scriptures, repent when you fall short, and lean on God’s grace for wisdom.

You will stumble, and you will grow weary, but your ultimate example is God the Father. When the weight of leadership feels heavy, remember your heavenly Father who goes before you, gives you rest, and loves you unconditionally. Step up, stand firm, and lead with love.

May you be challenged by the following:

1 Corinthians 16:13-14 [NLT] – ¹³ “Be on guard. Stand firm in the faith. Be courageous. Be strong. ¹⁴ And do everything with love.”

Joshua 24:14a, 15b [NLT] – ^{14a} “So fear the LORD and serve him wholeheartedly. ^{15b} “...But as for me and my family, we will serve the LORD.”

Proverbs 20:7 [NLT] – ⁷ “The godly walk with integrity; blessed are their children who follow them.”

Ephesians 6:4 [NLT] – ⁴ “Fathers, do not provoke your children to anger by the way you treat them. Rather, bring them up with the discipline and instruction that comes from the Lord. ”
