Memorials are Important

Memorials enrich the lives of those who use them.

Jacob used a stone for a pillow and then in the morning he turned it upright as a memorial stone and poured oil on it. This became his location for worshipping God.

Joshua had 12 stones set up in the Jordan River as a memorial so the children would ask what they meant. This memorial opened a teaching opportunity.

Joshua acted again, “So we decided to build the altar, not for burnt offerings or sacrifices, but as a memorial. It will remind our descendants and your descendants that we, too, have the right to worship the LORD at His sanctuary with our burnt offerings, sacrifices, and peace offerings.

Jerry Allen set up a memorial park bench for his first wife Doris in St. Helens, Oregon.

Jesus set up a memorial symbolic meal as a reminder of His death that substituted for ours. Those who observe the Lord’s Supper each week have stable lives and are in the best position to make spiritual growth.

Wise men of our nation’s past set aside a day for every citizen to remember the men and women who died in the service of our nation. The poppy has been designated as a symbol from the Creator of Memorial Day.

We become better people when we stop to think about those who have gone before us and the values they held dear. That’s one thing a memorial can do. Let’s include reviewing what the memorial is about in our Memorial Day.
