Mary's Song of Praise: The Magnificat

Mary knew the scriptures well.

Mary responded, "Oh, how my soul praises the Lord.

How my spirit rejoices in God my Savior! For he took notice of his lowly servant girl, and from now on all generations will call me blessed. For the Mighty One is holy, and he has done great things for me. He shows mercy from generation to generation to all who fear him. His mighty arm has done tremendous things! He has scattered the proud and haughty ones.

He has brought down princes from their thrones and exalted the humble. He has filled the hungry with good things and sent the rich away with empty hands.

He has helped his servant Israel and remembered to be merciful. For he made this promise to our ancestors, to Abraham and his children forever." - Luke 1:46-55 [NLT]

This song resembles Hannah's song in 1 Sa 2:1-10, but it also has at least 12 other allusions to the Old Testament. This means that Mary was a woman who studied and knew God's Word. The Scriptures were on her heart, and came out through her song.

- "It appears by the whole frame of this holy song, that the blessed Virgin was well versed in the Scripture, which she here makes so much use of in sundry passages...She had by her much reading made her bosom Christ's library, and may seem to have been exercised in the good word of God from her infancy." (Trapp)

Mary was greatly gifted and highly privileged. She did exactly what such greatly blessed people should do: Mary magnified the Lord. This remedies pride and self-congratulation and is something every blessed believer should do.
