GREAT- GRANDPARENTING ON GRANDPARENTS' DAY

CHARLES DAILEY

As life continues, it becomes very easy to become distant from our grandchildren and great- grandchildren. (I have 12 great-grands.) Do we know their names? Their ages? Their interests and their goals?

Lois was my regular source of stories about them and kept track of their birthdays. Now, I have to take action if I'm to stay in the loop.

Daughter Joy Kubow takes the lead in producing a family birthday calendar. She gathers the dates and pictures, getting a vendor like Walgreen or Costco to do the printing. Birthdays are a good reason to get in touch.

I like to contact all family members around the time of their birthdays. With some I write a letter, with others I text their parents.

It's handy to put the names on my morning prayer list. I pray for the entire family, each by name, interest and special needs. I make reminder notes on my prayer list as well as recording their ages.

This calendar year, three of my great-grands have been baptized into Christ. Olivia obeyed the gospel and made Jesus the Lord of her life. She is setting great goals for her life. Isaac and Joel were baptized last month. Some others will follow in the next year or two.

It's wonderful to have an active part in the lives of our children, grandchildren and great-grands.

But let me reveal to you a wonderful secret. We will not all die, but we will all be transformed! It will happen in a moment, in the blink of an eye, when the last trumpet is blown. For when the trumpet sounds, those who have died will be raised to live forever. And we who are living will also be transformed.

(1 Corinthians 15:51-52 NLT)
