DEFINITIONS (REVELATION 14:6-13)

- Torment: terrible physical or mental pain
- Wrath: extreme anger
- Gospel: the good news that Jesus died for us and saved us from our sin if we put our trust in him

QUESTIONS (REVELATION 14:6-13)

1. If someone asked you what the “good news” is, what would you say?

Humans are sinful people and our sin is what separates us from God, even after we die. There is nothing we can do on our own to change this. However, because God loved us so much he sent Jesus to earth to take our punishment for sin, which is death. Because Jesus lived without any sin of his own and is God he rose from death. He will take our sin from us and make it like we have never sinned. If we choose to live like him, we too can be with God when our lives are over.

2. How does Revelation 14:6-13 describe hell? Is it the type of place you'd want to be, why?

The people that go to hell will experience God's anger without end and there will fire and sulfur that will torment them forever. (Answers may vary)

3. How come the third angel's message that describes hell is for believers and the rebels?

It's for the believers so that they would have certain hope that Jesus Christ wins! It's for the rebels so that they know what is coming to them should they refuse to turn from their sin and deny Christ as their Savior.
