QUESTIONS (REVELATION 10:1-11)

1. Why do you think that John was told not to write down the messages of the seven thunders?

Answers may vary (possible answers: God did not want people to know, God does not think it's information we need to know in order to follow in His ways)

2. Why is the Bible the only place for absolute truth?

The Bible is the Word of God and God does not lie. The Bible contains the truth of the Creator and as creation we are unable to to make up additional truths outside of God's order.

3. How is the Word of God sweet and bitter?

It is sweet in that the Bible tells us of Christ's sacrifice for our sin. It is sweet to the believers in that we know we will be saved from our sin and live with God forever. The Word of God can be bitter because it tells us that believers will suffer while on earth because of the truth they hold onto. Rebels find the taste of God's Word bitter because they hate God and do not want to believe what he says.
