

Genesis 30:25-31:55 – 19 December 2019

“Graduating from Carnal Christian University”

Introduction

Jacob, the deceiver, built relationships by trickery

He stole Esau’s birthright with soup in the field

He stole Esau’s blessing by outright deception

Wants to have the godly blessing of Abraham...

without the godly part.

When he met God at Bethel, he had a conversion and began building bargaining relationships.

This was thrown back at him by his wives and all the infighting during the 15-20 child-rearing years.

Jacob’s life with God has been as a Carnal Christian

Jacob is finally moving away from all that carnality.

Tonight, we get the ABCDs of Graduating from Carnal Christian University.

A in graduating from Carnal Christian U is for Abandoning bad relationships (Chap 30:25-43)

Read Chap 30:25-26

Dedication to Division (Chap 31:43-55)

Read Chap 31:43-55

1. They're dedicating to not cross paths again.
2. Jacob had already abandoned this lifestyle, but faced w/ contention again, he has to double down.
3. Believing in a new path, he now dedicates to it.
4. Read Rom 6:11-12

Conclusion –

Today we've seen the ABCDs of graduating from Carnal Christian University.

- A. Abandon bad relationships and habits
  - a. Don't wait until you experience 20 or 30 years of contention before you get a belly full.
- B. Believe God for a new path forward
  - a. You may lose the ability to speak freely around the Labans in your life, but you'll begin to be able to speak freely around those truly close to you.
- C. Contention will come anyway, be ready
  - a. A life of sin has great consequences. Some go away quickly; some consequences stick around a lot longer.
- D. Dedicate to division away from sticky sins
  - a. Like Heb 4:11 “let us labor to enter into the rest” that Christ offers us.
