

Sermon Summary

august 6 2023

Summary

Pastor Carl begins his sermon by discussing the importance of seeing God's position, personality, and sovereignty like Isaiah did in order to rise above difficult circumstances. Pastor then focuses on God's holiness, describing how Isaiah saw a vision of God's holiness and glory. He explains that sovereignty may be the nature of God, but holiness is the moral character of God and essence of His being.

Pastor Carl describes the seraphim that Isaiah saw praising God's holiness by proclaiming "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts." Then pastor discusses the meaning of God's holiness and how it shows His perfection and purity. Pastor Carl challenges the congregation to recognize God's holiness by living holy lives and giving Him glory for everything.

Pastor Carl lists several Bible verses affirming Jesus' sinless and holy nature. He argues that Jesus had to be holy to be the Savior of the world.

Pastor encourages listeners to seek God's kingdom and righteousness first and to call upon the Lord for salvation if they have not done so already. Pastor Carl then offers to help anyone who wants to receive Christ.

In summary, the main themes are the holiness and glory of God, the sinless nature of Jesus, the need for holy living, and the call for people to be saved through Jesus
