Summary

Pastor Carl begins by discussing the chosen people of God, saying Israel is spiritual Israel consisting of all nations, not just the Jewish race. Pastor emphasizes that salvation comes by grace through faith in Christ, not by works. The chosen are those who pursue righteousness by faith, not by works of the law.

Pastor then shares an encounter someone had with Satan. Satan tried to tempt this person to renounce God in exchange for sparing them from hell. The person resisted Satan by invoking Jesus' name.

Pastor talks about hell and how Satan uses things like money, drugs, alcohol, sex, and more to manipulate people. Pastor says less than half of preachers believe in hell and many people think Satan is a joke.

Throughout the sermon, Pastor emphasizes the importance of staying close to Jesus and not renouncing one's faith. He says the only way someone would end up lost is if they renounce Jesus, though Satan will try many ways to tempt people.

In summary, the main themes are salvation by grace through faith, the deceptiveness of Satan, and the need to remain close to Jesus and not renounce one's faith.
