

The Sticky Power of Teaching your Kids about Money

Jacob

Part of Sticky Faith

June 25, 2017

1 Timothy 6:17-19

Observations

- Giving instructions about money is the role of a leader
- Certain attitudes are beneficial when it comes to money
- Giving is an important part of stewardship of our money

Areas of Financial Life Addressed in Scripture

- Work - it's not a bad word

God ties hard work to the accumulation of resources

The aluggard is hebopposite of hard work. It does not honor God

Make the Work-$ connection.

Work and achievement build Self-esteem

Work makes a contribution to Society

- . Honesty - still the best policy

Wbrd

Time

Resources

- Figures = how Values = why

*There is an opportunity cost.
If you spend money on X today you can't spend it on Y later*

Your families have values. Don't say we can't afford it say, that's not a value we spend money on

Money has limits,

Money is connected to your work

Teach the value of patience in saving!

Just because you can buy it right out doesn't mean you should!

Personal checking account in the early teen years

- Save - Wait for it (Proverbs 21:5; 21:20)
- Give - it's not your anyway (we give not because a God needs it! We give because we need it)