The Book of Hebrews: Chapter 11c

(Blue text is Hebrews)

Chapter 11

²³ "By faith Moses, when he was born, was hidden for three months by his parents, because they saw that the child was beautiful, and they were not afraid of the king's edict. ²⁴ By faith Moses, when he was grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter, ²⁵ choosing rather to be mistreated with the people of God than to enjoy the fleeting pleasures of sin. ²⁶ He considered the reproach of Christ greater wealth than the treasures of Egypt, for he was looking to the reward. ²⁷ By faith he left Egypt, not being afraid of the anger of the king, for he endured as seeing him who is invisible. ²⁸ By faith he kept the Passover and sprinkled the blood, so that the Destroyer of the firstborn might not touch them.

²⁹ By faith the people crossed the Red Sea as on dry land, but the Egyptians, when they attempted to do the same, were drowned. ³⁰ By faith the walls of Jericho fell down after they had been encircled for seven days. ³¹ By faith Rahab the prostitute did not perish with those who were disobedient, because she had given a friendly welcome to the spies.

³² And what more shall I say? For time would fail me to tell of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, of David and Samuel and the prophets— ³³ who through faith conquered kingdoms, enforced justice, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, ³⁴ quenched the power of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, were made strong out of weakness, became mighty in war, put foreign armies to flight. ³⁵ Women received back their dead by resurrection. Some were tortured, refusing to accept release, so that they might rise again to a better life. ³⁶ Others suffered mocking and flogging, and even chains and imprisonment. ³⁷ They were stoned, they were sawn in two, they were killed with the sword. They went about in skins of sheep and goats, destitute, afflicted, mistreated— ³⁸ of whom the world was not worthy—wandering about in deserts and mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth.

³⁹ And all these, though commended through their faith, did not receive what was promised, ⁴⁰ since God had provided something better for us, that apart from us they should not be made perfect.”

Chapter 12

“Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, ² looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God.³ Consider him who endured from sinners such hostility against himself, so that you may not grow weary or fainthearted. ⁴ In your struggle against sin you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding your blood.”

The Great Cloud of Witnesses

As God’s word proved successful for them so will it for us:

- By faith Moses’ parents did not fear Pharo’s edict.
- By faith he chose not to be considered Pharo’s daughter’s son.
- By faith he left Egypt not fearing the king.
- By faith he kept the Passover.

- The Israelites crossed the Red Sea on dry ground.
- By faith the walls of Jericho fell.
- By faith Rahab the prostitute was saved as she was kind to the spies.
- Gideon conquered the Midianites with 300 men. (Judges 6)
- Barak routed the king of Canaan. (Judges 4)
- Samson brought destruction to the Philistines. Judges (13-16)
- Jephthah subdued the Ammonites.

David, Samuel and all the prophets:

- Conquered kingdoms
- Enforced justice (1 King 3:16)
- Obtained promises
- Stopped the mouths of lions
- Quenched the power of fire
- Escaped the edge of the sword
- Were made strong out of weakness
- Became mighty in war
- Put foreign armies to flight
- Women received back their dead (1 Kings 17:17)
- Some were tortured
- Others suffered mocking and flogging, and even chains and imprisonment
- They were stoned
- They were sawn in two
- They were killed with the sword
- They went about in skins of sheep and goats, destitute, afflicted, mistreated
- of whom the world was not worthy, wandering about in deserts and mountains, and in dens and caves

These are the great cloud of witnesses!

As we look to them let us run the race set before us.
