APPLICATION QUESTIONS

These questions are provided for further study and application of today's message. Thoughtfully writing out the answers will help drive home the point of today's message. It is also helpful to discuss your answers with others.

1. Why is it essential for you to start with God's love revealed in the Trinity? What does that reveal about God's character?
2. How does the Father love Jesus the Son? How does the Son love the Father? What can we learn from the way that the Son loves the Father about obedience?
3. In what ways does God love all people? What are some examples from scripture?
4. God's family love is unique. On what basis does God love His people? What freedom is found when someone believes God loves because He chose to love? How could that help you when you sin and fail? What does it mean that God's love is revealed in His deep compassion for His people?
