CHURCHWIDE SUPERBOWL PARTY

VALLEY MISSION TRIP

There are ways you can help with the Spring Break Valley Mission Trip even if you can't go. We are paying for 1/2 the cost of a home. We are teaching sewing and cooking classes. Each participant in these classes will get to keep a sewing machine and/or crock pot. We have a children's ministry. All of this costs money. You can donate towards the mission trip by marking your envelope "missions".

MISSION TRIPS 2020

We have three mission trips scheduled in 2020. Our Texas trip to the Rio Grande Valley is during Spring Break.

We will return to Blanca, Colorado the first week of July to help them with their July 4th outreach to the community.

We go international to Costa Rica from July 7-14. We will be working primarily with refugees from Nicaragua. We will help with VBS, and minister at the local elderly home. There will also be light construction opportunities.

Start praying and thinking about which mission trip you can get involved with. Watch for more information on these trips in the weeks to come.

THOUGHTS ON THE JOURNEY

Life has detours! I know we all wish life was a direct line from point A to point B without any disruptions, but that simply is not the case. Life has an amazing way of throwing surprises at us. Sometimes those surprises are positive, and sometimes they are negative. On the positive side, we get promotions, new opportunities, and unexpected blessings. At other times, we deal with illness, broken relationships, lost jobs, and maybe even an incarceration. So, what do we do when these unexpected detours come? How do we handle such disruptions in our lives, particularly when they are not positive disruptions?

Scripture is filled with people who have experienced the very same things we have. Whether it is Moses and the 40 years he spent in hiding, or Joseph who was sold into slavery and then falsely imprisoned, or Ruth who lost her husband, or Peter who denied the very God he loved, or the woman at the well who was called out for her sin – all of these people experienced disruptions. The beauty for us is that we get to examine how they turned these setbacks into comebacks.

“ We will look at six stories of people who dealt with a setback, but in time made an incredible comeback. ”

Over the next six weeks we will make this our task. We will look at six stories of people who dealt with a setback, but in time made an incredible comeback. As we look at these stories, it is my hope that you will realize that whatever setback you have dealt with, that you too, can make a comeback. God is still writing our story. If you examine scripture, you will discover that grace and redemption are key plot lines in any story that God writes.

As we worship this morning, I want to encourage you to name your setback. Maybe it is in the distant past, maybe you are in the middle of it as you read this, or maybe you see it coming and there is nothing you can do to stop it – but name your setback. Then, I want to encourage you to be brave enough to lay that before the Lord and trust that He will use it to stage an amazing comeback. If you have already experienced your comeback, then take time to thank God for His work in your life.

Honored to be your pastor,

DARRELL

Lessons from the Life of Moses:

Sin, Hiding, and Preparation
Exodus 1-4

THE BIG IDEA: Moses experienced a 40 year detour because of sin, yet God used him in a powerful way.

1. A _____ situation (v. 1:8).
2. The _____ of an individual (vs. 1:16, 2:2, 2:9-10).
3. An _____ detour (vs. 2:11-12, 2:15).
4. A _____ of purpose (vs. 2:23-24, 3:1-6).
5. A _____ in God's purposes (4:18-19).

Rewind

1. What detours have you faced in your life?
2. Have these detours, at least in part, been a result of your own sin?
3. How did you experience God's grace in these times?
4. Do you believe that God can still use you?
5. Where is God asking you to reengage?
