

Welcome: What is your favorite movie genre, why?

Worship: Read Psalm 146

Word: Read John 4:1-42, Matthew 28:19-20

1. Understanding the context, why was it so scandalous for Jesus to speak to this woman at the well? What social boundaries did He cross?
2. Can you relate to this woman? When have you experienced shame, loneliness or unfulfillment?
3. What does this conversation teach us about the character of Jesus?
4. The disciples were distracted and unaware of the many others who desired to meet their Savior. Can you relate to the disciples' ignorance? What distracts you from seeing those around us in need of salvation?
5. What does it mean to you, in your circle of influence, to "open your eyes and look at the fields! They are ripe for harvest."
6. As we continue to embrace Jesus' command in Mt. 28, we are entering into a new season of radical faith and expansion for our church! What are you looking forward to the most in this new season?
7. How do you see yourself stepping out in faith to help serve and empower the church and our transition? What role is God calling you to play?

Witness: Pray for 2020 & Beyond. Pray for further clarity, blessing, unity. Pray for supernatural courage and wisdom as we all consider how God might use our time, talent and treasure.
