Dan mentioned being led to intentionally pray for others. Why is having a group to pray with and for so powerful and important?

As Brandy shared her story about not receiving an answer right away, how have you seen God answer your prayer in His timing, not yours? How does God's timing bring the most amount of life?

How can we each relate Psalm 139 and Psalm 68:19 to our unique prayer journey?

Mike shared about a deep struggle he faced with God in prayer because he didn't receive what he was asking for. Can you relate to Mike's story in anyway?

What have you learned about yourself, your prayers, and the love of God in the midst of them?
