

Welcome: What are three things that happened this week that you are grateful for?

Worship: Read Psalm 133 aloud.

Word: Read Ephesians 2:11-21.

What stood out to you most from this week's sermon?

What is a modern day example of two adversarial cultural groups that are like the Jews and Gentiles?

Describe a time where you were marginalized or excluded. How do those types of experiences help us to appreciate the truth found in verse 13?

What do you think Paul meant by the word "peace" in this passage?

Describe how you have you experienced or witnessed that type of peace in the church.

Do you compartmentalize God, church and family? If so, what are some of the consequences of keeping those three things in separate categories? What are some of the benefits of treating these three things as all one category?

What are some practical ways that we can de-compartmentalize God, church and family?

Witness: On a scale from 1 to 10 (10 representing a heart and life on fire for those who are lost, and a 1 representing someone who rarely is even thinking about those disconnected from God), what is your outreach temperature, and what's one practical step that you can do this month to raise it by one degree?
