3. Read verses 6-10; 11-16; and 17-21.
 - Discuss how Jewish traditions and customs related to the Law were an advantage to them but also a stumbling block.
 - What is your faith background and the traditions/customs associated? Discuss how these things have been an advantage or even becomes stumbling block for you.
 - What are some of the specific reasons Pastor Bryan listed for staying connected to the root of Judaism?
 - How should this give us a greater appreciation and connection to Jewish traditions and customs?
4. Read verses 22 – 24.
 - Discuss what it means to be grafted into the root of Judaism.
 - How can this understanding grow us in humility, spiritual maturity, and faith (in the Word of God)?

WITNESS Sunday’s message reminds us that the dominant character in Salvation is God. Who is in your mission field? Every single relationship we have is sacred, for his influence and his Kingdom. Pray for these individuals and invest in these relationships, keeping eternity in mind.
