Word: Read Matthew 25:14-30

1. How would you define good stewardship?
2. Why do you think God put Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden to work and take care of the land they were given?
3. How is Jesus using this parable in Matthew 25 to reveal the character of God?
4. The master dispensed different bags of gold to each of his servants. What does that tell us about the way God dispenses grace into each of our lives?
5. The third servant didn't lose any of the master's treasure, but he was still rebuked. Why? What are some ways we may hide God's grace?
6. To steward grace well, we invest it. Considering 2020+BEYOND; how do you see God dispensing His grace to you, and how will you invest it?
7. Read Mt. 25:21, 2 Cor. 9:6. This is where we see the Kingdom principle of sowing and reaping. In what ways have you seen God fulfill this promise in your life recently?

Witness: How do you think good stewardship of God's grace leads to being an effective witness of the gospel?
