What are some examples of levers that we should pull to gain His Kingdom power?

Which worldly attribute (or "lever") described in these verses are you most likely to utilize for worldly power (e.g. lying, anger, manipulation, stealing/greed, putting others down, etc.)? Why do you think you have historically gravitated to that worldly power lever? What is the Kingdom attribute that is the opposite of the worldly attribute that you identified?

How would you summarize the essence of Paul's teaching in this particular passage? What do you think is the key verse?
