Collecting Children's Books for Isaac Lane Elementary this week! Sunday, Feb. 25- Sunday, Mar. 3

Isaac-Lane Elementary School has asked us to collect new or gently owned elementary children's books to be used as prizes for their Read Across America Program in early March. The purpose of these books will be to go home with the students and their families to be read together at home. They want to encourage more reading at home with the kids and parents. This is terrific news! Religious books are ok as well. If you have kids' books you have been wondering how to get rid of, and they are in good shape, bring them to the Church. We will deliver the books to the school on March 4. Look for the large Book Deposit Bin in the lobby area of Hope Hall and deposit your books there. Thank You!!

SERMON NOTES

Giving Up: Pride John 13:1-8

Today we will look at pride which is the foundational issue that we must address if we are to live fully into the life God has for us.

1. Why we hold onto our pride
2. What pride does to us
3. Pride is broken as we lay aside the garments of our self-importance

Questions for Reflection:

1. What did the Spirit reveal to you as you heard the Seven Signs of Pride?
2. What do you need to do in order to dig up the "dandelion" of pride from your life?
