

Walking with Jesus: Walk Where He Walks

Isaiah 55:6-13, Psalm 25:1-10, Matthew 4:18-22

- Walking with Jesus begins with an invitation to _____ him.

Jesus Meets Us in Ordinary Places (Matthew 4:18-22)

- Jesus meets us in the middle of our regular, _____ life.
- Following Jesus doesn't start when life becomes spiritual — it starts right where you _____ are.
- The first step in walking with Jesus is responding to his _____.
- Walking with Jesus means allowing Him to _____ our routines, reorder our priorities, and redefine what matters most.
- We leave everything and follow Jesus because Jesus Himself is _____ it.

Learning God's Way (Isaiah 55:8-13, Psalm 25)

- God's ways are not simply better versions of ours — they are _____ our limited understanding.

Practicing the Wonder of Worship

- Identify obedience _____.
- Take _____ intentional obedience step.
- Commit to walking with Jesus _____.

Walking with Jesus: Walk Where He Walks

Isaiah 55:6-13, Psalm 25:1-10, Matthew 4:18-22

- Walking with Jesus begins with an invitation to _____ him.

Jesus Meets Us in Ordinary Places (Matthew 4:18-22)

- Jesus meets us in the middle of our regular, _____ life.
- Following Jesus doesn't start when life becomes spiritual — it starts right where you _____ are.
- The first step in walking with Jesus is responding to his _____.
- Walking with Jesus means allowing Him to _____ our routines, reorder our priorities, and redefine what matters most.
- We leave everything and follow Jesus because Jesus Himself is _____ it.

Learning God's Way (Isaiah 55:8-13, Psalm 25)

- God's ways are not simply better versions of ours — they are _____ our limited understanding.

Practicing the Wonder of Worship

- Identify obedience _____.
- Take _____ intentional obedience step.
- Commit to walking with Jesus _____.

