

Come and See: The Entry to Discipleship

Revelation 21:1-6, Psalm 84, Matthew 28:16-21

- Gospel hospitality is an invitation into a lifetime of _____.

Hospitality is the Front Door to Discipleship (Matthew 28:16-21)

- _____, mathētēs (μαθητής), literally means “learner” or “apprentice”—one who follows a master to become like him.
- _____ - The Spirit-empowered process of learning to live under the lordship of Jesus Christ in every part of life
- Following Jesus is the starting point of the Christian life, and _____ is the fruit that follows.

Making Disciples

- Making disciples requires both invitation (“come and see”) and _____ (“go and do”).
- When we practice gospel hospitality, our homes and lives become places where disciples are formed and the gospel _____.

Eternal Hospitality (Revelation 21:1-6)

- Gospel hospitality is _____—it points toward the new heaven and new earth.
- Gospel hospitality is not merely social—it’s _____, revealing eternal realities through everyday love.

Gospel Multiplication

- Be _____ – Live a Life of Invitation
- Be _____ – Walk in Imitation of Christ
- Be _____ – Multiply through Relationship

Come and See: The Entry to Discipleship

Revelation 21:1-6, Psalm 84, Matthew 28:16-21

- Gospel hospitality is an invitation into a lifetime of _____.

Hospitality is the Front Door to Discipleship (Matthew 28:16-21)

- _____, mathētēs (μαθητής), literally means “learner” or “apprentice”—one who follows a master to become like him.
- _____ - The Spirit-empowered process of learning to live under the lordship of Jesus Christ in every part of life
- Following Jesus is the starting point of the Christian life, and _____ is the fruit that follows.

Making Disciples

- Making disciples requires both invitation (“come and see”) and _____ (“go and do”).
- When we practice gospel hospitality, our homes and lives become places where disciples are formed and the gospel _____.

Eternal Hospitality (Revelation 21:1-6)

- Gospel hospitality is _____—it points toward the new heaven and new earth.
- Gospel hospitality is not merely social—it’s _____, revealing eternal realities through everyday love.

Gospel Multiplication

- Be _____ – Live a Life of Invitation
- Be _____ – Walk in Imitation of Christ
- Be _____ – Multiply through Relationship

