Acts: Church on the Move

Acts 17, Psalm 121, Luke 24:44-49

- Epicureans generally believed the gods were uninvolved in human affairs and rejected resurrection and divine judgment.
- Stoics emphasized reason, virtue, and living according to the order of nature.

The Gospel for All

- _____ - "Hill of Ares," also known as Mars Hill, both to a physical location near the Acropolis and to an influential Athenian council associated with civic, judicial, and religious matters.
- Paul's theological proclamations:
  - God is the _____ of all things.
  - God is the _____ of all things.
  - God is the _____ and _____ of all life.
- The Gospel is for _____ because the God who created all people is Lord over all people.

The Gospel Must Be Faithfully Proclaimed

- The Gospel reveals who God truly is and confronts the _____ we have made and worship.
  - God commands all people everywhere to _____.
  - God has appointed a day of righteous _____.
  - God has appointed Jesus as Judge and confirmed His authority through the _____.
- Faithful Gospel witness meets people where they are without _____ the truth of who Jesus is.

God Gives the Growth

- Our faithfulness is not measured simply by the response we receive, but by our _____ to the One who sends us.

THE GATHERING CHURCH

Acts: Church on the Move

Acts 17, Psalm 121, Luke 24:44-49

- Epicureans generally believed the gods were uninvolved in human affairs and rejected resurrection and divine judgment.
- Stoics emphasized reason, virtue, and living according to the order of nature.

The Gospel for All

- _____ - "Hill of Ares," also known as Mars Hill, both to a physical location near the Acropolis and to an influential Athenian council associated with civic, judicial, and religious matters.
- Paul's theological proclamations:
  - God is the _____ of all things.
  - God is the _____ of all things.
  - God is the _____ and _____ of all life.
- The Gospel is for _____ because the God who created all people is Lord over all people.

The Gospel Must Be Faithfully Proclaimed

- The Gospel reveals who God truly is and confronts the _____ we have made and worship.
  - God commands all people everywhere to _____.
  - God has appointed a day of righteous _____.
  - God has appointed Jesus as Judge and confirmed His authority through the _____.
- Faithful Gospel witness meets people where they are without _____ the truth of who Jesus is.

God Gives the Growth

- Our faithfulness is not measured simply by the response we receive, but by our _____ to the One who sends us.

THE GATHERING CHURCH