

Galatians: Gospel Life

Galatians 3:15-29, Psalm 119:97-104, Luke 24:13-35

The Promise and the Law

- Ultimately, God's promise was always pointing to one person, _____
- Our assurance is not rooted in how consistently we perform, but in how _____ God keeps His promises.
- The Law reveals God's _____.
- The Law exposes our _____.
- The law cannot give _____.
- _____ - παιδαγωγός (paidagōgos). - A servant entrusted with supervising and protecting a child until adulthood. The guardian's role was temporary.

The Solution

- The gospel proclaims that we are not only forgiven but _____ as God's children.
- Our identity in Christ is _____ than every earthly distinction.

Living Gospel Life

- Let the law _____ you to Jesus.
- _____ in God's promises.

Galatians: Gospel Life

Galatians 3:15-29, Psalm 119:97-104, Luke 24:13-35

The Promise and the Law

- Ultimately, God's promise was always pointing to one person, _____
- Our assurance is not rooted in how consistently we perform, but in how _____ God keeps His promises.
- The Law reveals God's _____.
- The Law exposes our _____.
- The law cannot give _____.
- _____ - παιδαγωγός (paidagōgos). - A servant entrusted with supervising and protecting a child until adulthood. The guardian's role was temporary.

The Solution

- The gospel proclaims that we are not only forgiven but _____ as God's children.
- Our identity in Christ is _____ than every earthly distinction.

Living Gospel Life

- Let the law _____ you to Jesus.
- _____ in God's promises.

