

Come and See: Overcoming Challenges

1 Peter 4:1-10, Psalm 68:4-10, Matthew 9:9-13

- “The hospitality that costs nothing is worth nothing.” - Rosaria Butterfield

The Challenge of Fear: Hospitality is _____.

- Matthew 9:9-13, Psalm 68:5-6
- Hospitality is not safe; it's _____

The Challenge of Busyness: Hospitality is _____.

- 1 Peter 4:7-10, Psalm 68:7-10
- Busyness is often disguised _____.
- Hospitality is not a distraction from mission; it is the _____.

The Challenge of Self: Hospitality is _____.

- Matthew 9, Psalm 68
- When we postpone hospitality until we feel worthy— we make hospitality about _____.
- Hospitality flows from God's grace, not our _____.

Overcoming the Challenges to Hospitality

1. From Fear to Faith: Invite beyond your _____.
 - a. Start _____, but start nonetheless.
2. From Busyness to Margin: _____ for connection.
 - a. Build _____ into your rhythms.
3. From Self to Humility: Share your real _____.
 - a. Practice an honest, unpolished _____.

Come and See: Overcoming Challenges

1 Peter 4:1-10, Psalm 68:4-10, Matthew 9:9-13

- “The hospitality that costs nothing is worth nothing.” - Rosaria Butterfield

The Challenge of Fear: Hospitality is _____.

- Matthew 9:9-13, Psalm 68:5-6
- Hospitality is not safe; it's _____

The Challenge of Busyness: Hospitality is _____.

- 1 Peter 4:7-10, Psalm 68:7-10
- Busyness is often disguised _____.
- Hospitality is not a distraction from mission; it is the _____.

The Challenge of Self: Hospitality is _____.

- Matthew 9, Psalm 68
- When we postpone hospitality until we feel worthy— we make hospitality about _____.
- Hospitality flows from God's grace, not our _____.

Overcoming the Challenges to Hospitality

1. From Fear to Faith: Invite beyond your _____.
 - a. Start _____, but start nonetheless.
2. From Busyness to Margin: _____ for connection.
 - a. Build _____ into your rhythms.
3. From Self to Humility: Share your real _____.
 - a. Practice an honest, unpolished _____.

