

The Trinity is...

2 Corinthians 13:5-15, Psalm 150, Matthew 28:16-20

- We cannot know God unless God _____ Himself known.

The Trinity is not...

- The Trinity is not _____: God is one person who merely appears in different modes or roles: sometimes Father, sometimes Son, sometimes Spirit.
- The Trinity is not _____: divides God into three separate beings instead of one God eternally existing in three persons.
- The Trinity is not _____: teaches that Jesus is not eternally God but instead the highest created being.
- Analogies may help us glimpse certain aspects of the Trinity, but every analogy eventually fails because there is nothing in _____ fully comparable to the Triune God.

The Trinity is...

- The trinity cannot be explained, only _____.
- The Trinity is _____ God
- The Trinity is _____ distinct persons.
- The Trinity works _____.

- The _____ is the one true God eternally existing as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, one in being, distinct in personhood, and united in all His works.
- To understand the Trinity is not merely to study a doctrine, but to grow in our _____, _____, and _____ of the God who has made Himself known.

The Trinity is...

2 Corinthians 13:5-15, Psalm 150, Matthew 28:16-20

- We cannot know God unless God _____ Himself known.

The Trinity is not...

- The Trinity is not _____: God is one person who merely appears in different modes or roles: sometimes Father, sometimes Son, sometimes Spirit.
- The Trinity is not _____: divides God into three separate beings instead of one God eternally existing in three persons.
- The Trinity is not _____: teaches that Jesus is not eternally God but instead the highest created being.
- Analogies may help us glimpse certain aspects of the Trinity, but every analogy eventually fails because there is nothing in _____ fully comparable to the Triune God.

The Trinity is...

- The trinity cannot be explained, only _____.
- The Trinity is _____ God
- The Trinity is _____ distinct persons.
- The Trinity works _____.

- The _____ is the one true God eternally existing as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, one in being, distinct in personhood, and united in all His works.
- To understand the Trinity is not merely to study a doctrine, but to grow in our _____, _____, and _____ of the God who has made Himself known.

