

Let There Be Wonder - Week 1

Isaiah 6:1-8, Psalm 96:1-9, John 1:1-14

- Every person is created and wired to _____.
 - “Worship is the act of valuing or treasuring God above all else... it is the response of the whole person—mind, emotions, will, and body—to the self-revelation of God.” - Sam Storms
- Worship is seeking and enjoying the _____ of God.

Worship Begins with God - Isaiah 6

- Worship begins with God’s _____.
- God reveals Himself as _____, glorious, and sovereign.
- God _____ our relationship with him and opens the way for us to respond.
- God’s self-revelation produces worship that _____ before it inspires.
- _____ worship is caused by a reduced vision of who God is.

Seeing God Right Changes Our Worship - Psalm 96, John 1

- _____ - yāhab: To recognize what already belongs to God. To declare what is already true. To align ourselves with reality
- Worship is not the act of creating God’s glory, but of acknowledging what is already _____.

Practicing the Wonder of Worship

- _____ God’s revelation before trying to respond.
- Grow in _____ God, not just knowing about God.
- _____ to God’s revelation with intentional acts of worship.

Let There Be Wonder - Week 1

Isaiah 6:1-8, Psalm 96:1-9, John 1:1-14

- Every person is created and wired to _____.
 - “Worship is the act of valuing or treasuring God above all else... it is the response of the whole person—mind, emotions, will, and body—to the self-revelation of God.” - Sam Storms
- Worship is seeking and enjoying the _____ of God.

Worship Begins with God - Isaiah 6

- Worship begins with God’s _____.
- God reveals Himself as _____, glorious, and sovereign.
- God _____ our relationship with him and opens the way for us to respond.
- God’s self-revelation produces worship that _____ before it inspires.
- _____ worship is caused by a reduced vision of who God is.

Seeing God Right Changes Our Worship - Psalm 96, John 1

- _____ - yāhab: To recognize what already belongs to God. To declare what is already true. To align ourselves with reality
- Worship is not the act of creating God’s glory, but of acknowledging what is already _____.

Practicing the Wonder of Worship

- _____ God’s revelation before trying to respond.
- Grow in _____ God, not just knowing about God.
- _____ to God’s revelation with intentional acts of worship.

