Living Between Grace & Glory

Titus 2:11-14

“Better circumstances do not make better men.” G.G. Findlay

The past appearing of grace and the future appearing of glory shapes how we live today.

TITUS 2:11-14

For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all men, instructing us to deny ungodliness and worldly desires and to live sensibly, righteously and godly in the present age, looking for the blessed hope and the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior, Christ Jesus, who gave Himself for us to redeem us from every lawless deed, and to purify for Himself a people for His own possession, zealous for good deeds.

1. Grace brought the gift of salvation.

2. Grace trains us how to live today.

3. Grace gives us hope for the future.

- Grace brings the gift of salvation: giving Himself to redeem us
- Grace trains us how to live today: zealous for good deeds
- Grace gives us hope for the future: being a people for his own possession

TITUS 3:3-8

At one time we too were foolish, disobedient, deceived and enslaved by all kinds of passions and pleasures. We lived in malice and envy, being hated and hating one another. But when the kindness and love of God our Savior appeared, he saved us not because of righteous things we had done, but because of his mercy. He saved us through the washing of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit, whom he poured out on us generously through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that, having been justified by his grace, we might become heirs having the hope of eternal life. This is a trustworthy saying. And I want you to stress these things, so that those who have trusted in God may be careful to devote themselves to doing what is good. These things are excellent and profitable for everyone.
