

As followers of Christ,
we pursue _____ on primary matters,
extend _____on secondary matters,
and demonstrate _____ in all matters.

(14:1-4) Now accept the one who is weak in faith, but not to have quarrels over opinions. One person has faith that he may eat all things, but the one who is weak eats only vegetables. The one who eats is not to regard with contempt the one who does not eat, and the one who does not eat is not to judge the one who eats, for God has accepted him. Who are you to judge the servant of another? To his own master he stands or falls; and he will stand, for the Lord is able to make him stand.

✓ _____ and _____

(14:5-8) One person values one day over another, another values every day the same. Each person must be fully convinced in his own mind. The one who observes the day, observes it for the Lord, and the one who eats, does so with regard to the Lord, for he gives thanks to God; and the one who does not eat, it is for the Lord that he does not eat, and he gives thanks to God. For not one of us lives for himself, and not one dies for himself; for if we live, we live for the Lord, or if we die, we die for the Lord; therefore whether we live or die, we are the Lord's.

✓ _____ and _____

(14:13-15) Therefore let's not judge one another anymore, but rather determine this: not to put an obstacle or a stumbling block in a brother's or sister's way. I know and am convinced in the Lord Jesus that nothing is unclean in itself; but to the one who thinks something is unclean, to that person it is unclean. For if because of food your brother or sister is hurt, you are no longer walking in accordance with love. Do not destroy with your choice of food that person for whom Christ died.

✓ _____ and _____

(14:20-21) Do not tear down the work of God for the sake of food. All things indeed are clean, but they are evil for the person who eats and causes offense. It is good not to eat meat or to drink wine, or to do anything by which your brother or sister stumbles.

--- Unto others, as Christ unto us ---

(Romans 15:7) Therefore, accept one another, just as Christ also accepted us, for the glory of God.

1. _____of your brothers and sisters,
for the sake of the gospel and
for the glory of God.

   (15:1 NLT) We who are strong must be considerate of those who are sensitive about things like this. We must not just please ourselves.

2. _____ your brothers and sisters,
for the sake of the gospel and
for the glory of God.

   (15:2-3 NLT) We should help others do what is right and build them up in the Lord. For even Christ didn't live to please himself. As the Scriptures say, "The insults of those who insult you, O God, have fallen on me." Such things were written in the Scriptures long ago to teach us. And the Scriptures give us hope and encouragement as we wait patiently for God's promises to be fulfilled.

3. _____ among your brothers and sisters,
for the sake of the gospel and
for the glory of God.

   (15:5-6 NLT) May God, who gives this patience and encouragement, help you live in complete harmony with each other, as is fitting for followers of Christ Jesus. Then all of you can join together with one voice, giving praise and glory to God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.
