

--- The story we read ---

(Luke 24:13-17) That same day two of Jesus' followers were walking to the village of Emmaus, seven miles from Jerusalem. As they walked along, they were talking about everything that had happened. As they talked and discussed these things, Jesus himself suddenly came and began walking with them. But God kept them from recognizing him.

1. We see their disappointment turn to _____.

(Luke 24:17) He asked them, "What are you discussing so intently as you walk along?" They stopped short, sadness written across their faces.

2. We see them give a report of their _____ and not a report of the _____.

(Luke 24:18) Then one of them, Cleopas, replied, "You must be the only person in Jerusalem who hasn't heard about all the things that have happened there the last few days."

3. We see their discouragement turn to _____.

(Luke 24:19-20) "What things?" Jesus asked. "The things that happened to Jesus, the man from Nazareth," they said. "He was a prophet who did powerful miracles, and he was a mighty teacher in the eyes of God and all the people. But our leading priests and other religious leaders handed him over to be condemned to death, and they crucified him.

4. We see that they had put their hope in _____ more than _____.

(Luke 24:21) We had hoped he was the Messiah who had come to rescue Israel. This all happened three days ago.

5. We see their confusion start to clear up by hearing _____.

(Luke 24:22-27) "Then some women from our group of his followers were at his tomb early this morning, and they came back with an amazing report. They said his body was missing, and they had seen angels who told them Jesus is alive! Some of our men ran out to see, and sure enough, his body was gone, just as the women had said."

Then Jesus said to them, "You foolish people! You find it so hard to believe all that the prophets wrote in the Scriptures. Wasn't it clearly predicted that the Messiah would have to suffer all these things before entering his glory?" Then Jesus took them through the writings of Moses and all the prophets, explaining from all the Scriptures the things concerning himself.

6. We see their desire to _____ increase.

(Luke 24:28-31) By this time they were nearing Emmaus and the end of their journey. Jesus acted as if he were going on, but they begged him, "Stay the night with us, since it is getting late." So he went home with them. As they sat down to eat, he took the bread and blessed it. Then he broke it and gave it to them. Suddenly, their eyes were opened, and they recognized him. And at that moment he disappeared!

7. We see them return to their people of _____.

(Luke 24:32-34) They said to each other, "Didn't our hearts burn within us as he talked with us on the road and explained the Scriptures to us?" And within the hour they were on their way back to Jerusalem. There they found the eleven disciples and the others who had gathered with them, who said, "The Lord has really risen! He appeared to Peter.

--- The God we see ---

✓ He is _____.

(1 John 3:24) Those who obey God's commandments remain in fellowship with him, and he with them. And we know he lives in us because the Spirit he gave us lives in us.

✓ He is _____.

(2 Peter 3:9) The Lord isn't really being slow about his promise, as some people think. No, he is being patient for your sake. He does not want anyone to be destroyed, but wants everyone to repent.

✓ He is _____.

(1 Corinthians 4:20) For the Kingdom of God is not just a lot of talk; it is living by God's power.
