

(Matthew 20:17-19) As Jesus was about to go up to Jerusalem, He took the twelve disciples aside by themselves, and on the road He said to them, "Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be handed over to the chief priests and scribes, and they will condemn Him to death, and they will hand Him over to the Gentiles to mock and flog and crucify, and on the third day He will be raised up."

(Matthew 21:1-9) When they had approached Jerusalem and had come to Bethphage, at the Mount of Olives, Jesus then sent two disciples, saying to them, "Go into the village opposite you, and immediately you will find a donkey tied there and a colt with it. Untie them and bring them to Me. And if anyone says anything to you, you shall say, 'The Lord needs them,' and he will send them on immediately." Now this took place so that what was spoken through the prophet would be fulfilled:

"Say to the daughter of Zion,
'Behold your King is coming to you,
Humble, and mounted on a donkey,
Even on a colt, the foal of a donkey.'"

The disciples went and did just as Jesus had instructed them, and brought the donkey and the colt, and laid their cloaks on them; and He sat on the cloaks. Most of the crowd spread their cloaks on the road, and others were cutting branches from the trees and spreading them on the road. Now the crowds going ahead of Him, and those who followed, were shouting,

"Hosanna to the Son of David;
Blessed is the One who comes in the name of the Lord;
Hosanna in the highest!"

1. Jesus, as the true Messiah and King, came to _____ God's wrath.

(Romans 6:23) For the wages of sin is death, but the gracious gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

(1 John 4:9-10) By this the love of God was revealed in us, that God has sent His only Son into the world so that we may live through Him. In this is love, not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son to be the propitiation for our sins.

2. Jesus, as the true Messiah and King, came to _____ for human sin.

(Hebrews 9:12-14) He entered the holy place once for all time, having obtained eternal redemption. For if the blood of goats and bulls, and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling those who have been defiled, sanctify for the cleansing of the flesh, how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered Himself without blemish to God, cleanse your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?

3. Jesus, as the true Messiah and King,
came to _____ us from the power
of sin and death.

(Romans 8:1-2) Therefore there is now no condemnation at all for those who are in Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has set you free from the law of sin and of death.

4. Jesus, as the true Messiah and King,
came to _____ to and through us,
the Kingdom of God.

(2 Corinthians 5:18-21) Now all these things are from God, who reconciled us to Himself through Christ and gave us the ministry of reconciliation, namely, that God was in Christ reconciling the world to Himself, not counting their wrongdoings against them, and He has committed to us the word of reconciliation. Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God were making an appeal through us; we beg you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. He made Him who knew no sin to be sin in our behalf, so that we might become the righteousness of God in Him.
