I CORINTHIANS

II Timothy 3:16-17

All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness,

That the man of God may be complete, thoroughly equipped for every good work

A person is seen from behind, walking away into a field of tall grass and bushes at night. The scene is dimly lit, with a dark, starry sky above. The overall mood is contemplative and somber.

I CORINTHIANS 15:29-34

II Corinthians 11:23-27

In labors more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequently, in deaths often

From the Jews five times I received forty stripes minus one Three times I was beaten with rods; once I was stoned; three times I was shipwrecked; a night and a day I have been in the deep; in journeys often, in peril of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils of my own countrymen, in perils of the Gentiles, in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren; in weariness and toil, in sleeplessness often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness

Paul now turns to the resurrection for practical everyday living – vv. 29-34

1. Questions to consider – vv. 29-32
