Guest Preacher

Andrew and Laura Kate Lupton have served on Covenant Church's international staff since graduating from Covenant Seminary in 2011. After nine beautiful years at the United Church of Bogotá, the Luptons transition to Norway with hearts that beat to reach the nations and the next generation through the international Church. The Luptons will labor to plant an international church in Oslo, one of Europe's most diverse and secular cities. Through this flagship international church, the Luptons look forward to supporting Mission to the World's new Norwegian church planting movement. Additionally, Andrew will coordinate church planting for the Missional international Church Network. Their prayer is to see healthy, Christ-centered international churches started and strengthened in strategic cities where the nations and the next generation intersect.
