Key Idea: The purpose of this parable isn't so much about getting us to do something but helping us see something. That something is the story or character of God's gracious heart for the hearts and lives of those in this world that wander away.

1. God's heart leads Him to seek those who have wandered (4)
2. God's heart eagerly bears the burden of restoration (5)
3. God's heart rejoices when the lost are found (5-6)
4. God's heart invites those who remain to examine our own hearts
